

REP. BECERRA: AMERICANS WANT JOBS, NOT MORE EXCUSES AND SCAPEGOATS

WASHINGTON, DC—Today, in an attempt to pit workers in America against each other, the House Judiciary Subcommittee on Immigration held a hearing deceptively titled "Making Immigration Work for American Minorities." After the hearing, Representative Xavier Becerra (CA-31), Vice Chair of the House Democratic Caucus, released the following statement:

“Americans want more jobs, not more excuses. Instead of working on a job creation plan for America, the new Republican majority is wasting time on an immigrant scapegoat plan that does nothing to create jobs. The American people are smarter than that—they want results, not scare tactics.

Fifty seven days -- and counting -- into the life of this Republican-led House of Representatives and we have yet to see a single bill, hearing or action taken to create jobs in America. But we’ve seen plenty of excuses.”
